

“The Pentagon, in Levitation” Lyrics in Apple Music format

Lyrics

*The war had spawned, an Aquarian dawn
A euphoric group, to stand down the 82*

The Pentagon, in levitation

*And it's 54 years, and I hold back my tears
As they climb a wall, to defend a cabal*

The Pentagon, in levitation

*When we were just an idea, you had a just cause, holding daffodils to cold iron
You gave us wisdom to liberate, as our brothers were dying*

*Then where to go? What was the plan? What was next for us?
What could we have been? What did you start? Who were we to you?*

*Then our time came, and we cut you loose
And drew an edge to your circles
If you had Dylan, and Nash and Young, we had The Clash, and The Pistols*

*Hold your fire, hold your fire, hold your fire, hold on
Hold your fire, hold your fire, hold your fire, hold on
Hold your fire, hold your fire, hold your fire, hold on
Hold your fire, hold your fire, hold your fire, hold on*

*The war had spawned, an Aquarian dawn
A euphoric group, to stand down the 82*

The Pentagon, in levitation
